

“Last Supper” Window

The first window on the north side of church is a window depicting the Last Supper and the institution of Holy Communion. The window is by local Morwell artist Tony Hanning (one-time Director of the Morwell Art Gallery). The words of Institution used by Jesus at the Last Supper and said at every Communion Service are etched into the window as well as a picture of a chalice of wine and paten of bread for Holy communion.
